

Finding a Forester in Your Area

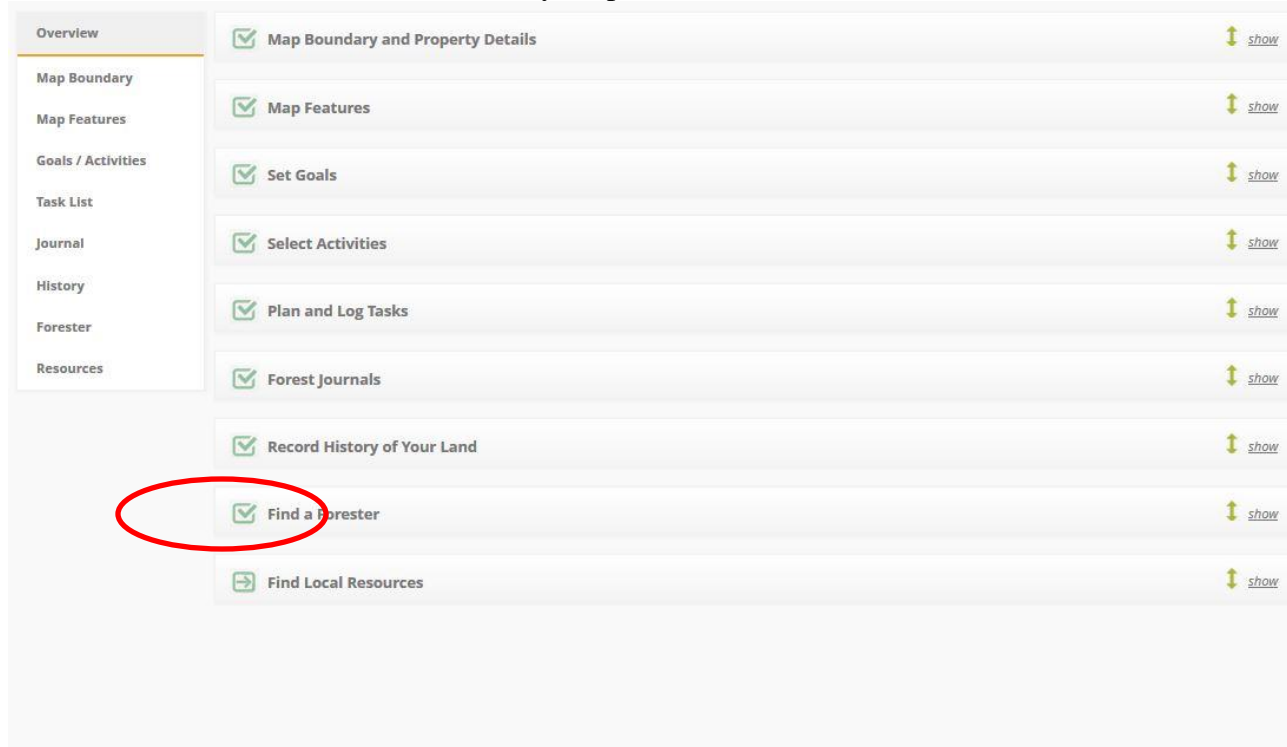

1. Log into your MyLandPlan.org Account: www.mylandplan.org/user

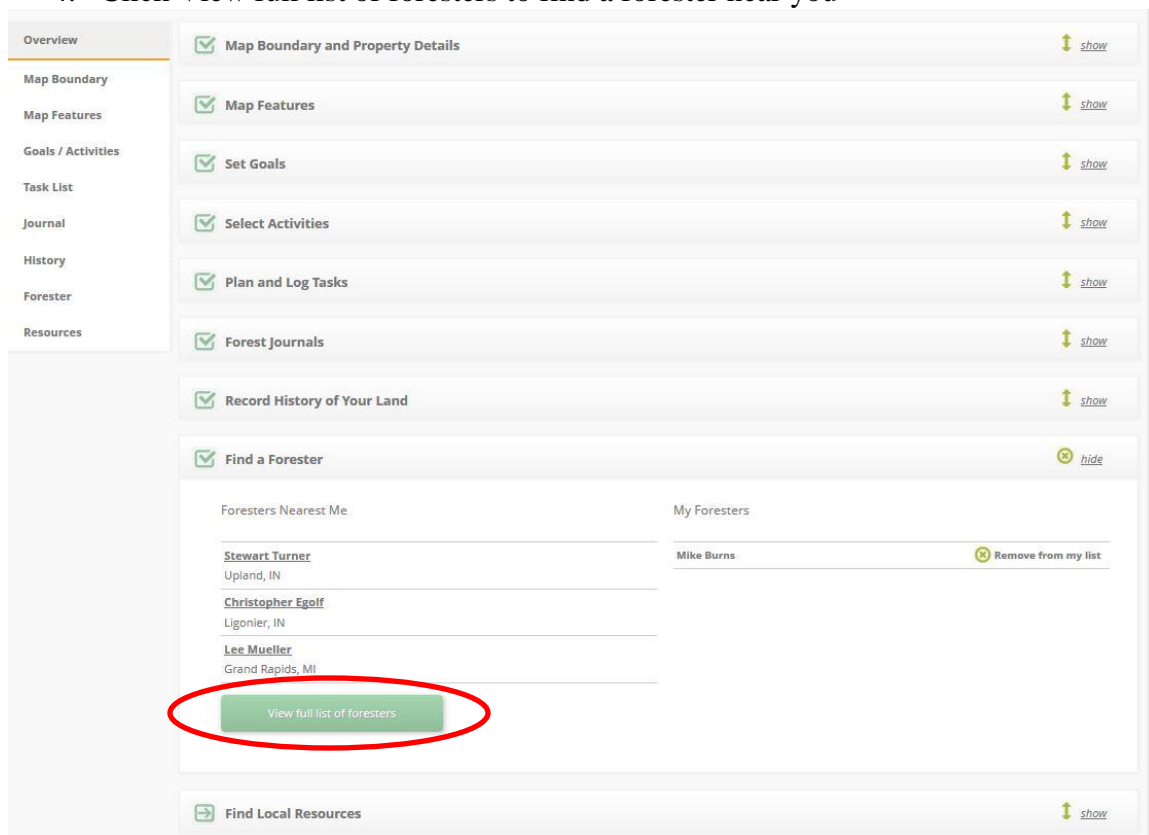

2. Select your plan overview:

3. Select Find a Forester in the Overview of your plan

4. Click View full list of foresters to find a forester near you

5. After you select the forester profile, then click on the Request Consultation button

The header of the My Land Plan website features the logo on the left, a search bar on the right, and a navigation menu below. The navigation menu includes options like 'Enjoy it', 'Protect it', 'Make it healthy', 'Profit from it', 'Pass it on', 'Find Help', and 'My Plan'. Below the navigation is a 'Forester Profile' section.

6. In your consultation request, you can check the “I agree to allow this forester to review my land plan.” Then that forester will be able to log into their MyLandPlan account and see the map you have made, the goals you have set as well as some of the activities you’d like to do.

The screenshot shows the My Land Plan website interface. At the top, there is a logo for the American Forest Foundation and the text "My Land Plan The woodland owner's resource". A search bar is located in the top right corner. Below the logo, a navigation bar contains several options: "Enjoy it", "Protect it", "Make it healthy", "Profit from it", "Pass it on", "Find Help", and "My Plan". A green button labeled "What do you want to do with your land?" is also visible. The main content area is titled "Request Consultation From Forester Caroline Kuebler" and includes a "Forester Profile" link. The form contains a paragraph of instructions, a "My Properties" section with a list of checkboxes, a "Message to Forester Caroline Kuebler" text area, and a checkbox for "I agree to allow this forester to review my land plan." followed by a "Submit" button.
